

University Faculty Senate Nominations

The University Faculty Senate is the principal organ of faculty participation in the governance of The City University. Elected delegates from each of the campuses review and formulate policy on appropriate aspects of university-wide planning and operation. Each meeting is attended by the Chancellor who typically presents a report and responds to questions. Queens College's delegation to the Senate consists of 11 Senators; 10 representing the full-time faculty and one representing the part-time faculty and CLTs. The terms are 3 years (1 year for Alternates). The Senate usually meets one Tuesday of each month in the evening, at the Graduate Center.

Our current delegation includes:
